This is the attenuated version of Saint George, brought to you to clear up the odds and ends, i.e. the games.

I had intended to wind down the zine eventually, but when I brought the last issue in to be printed, at my company, the woman who runs such things decided to exercise her authority and cancel the agreement we had had for printing. I could not continue to run a full-sized zine at the sub rate I had been charging. In fact, the cost of getting the thing printed pretty much precludes doing a full-sized zine. I understand printing costs are cheaper in other parts of the country.

So the decision was between what you see here and my buying ditto or mimeo equipment. Since I was thinking of winding down anyway, it didn’t seem wise.

To make clear about the 25¢ per turn charge: essentially, that’s what you were paying before, only then it was called a sub. Your sub balance DOES count toward this charge. If it makes it easier for you to think of it as a 25¢/issue sub, that’s what it really means. The fee is per issue, not per game. There is only a single charge no matter how many games you are in.

I still need standbys. There are two positions in 1979C0, which is only in Winter, 1901 for which I have no standbys. Please help out an old, tired GM and send me standby orders. SOMEONE?

Soon after I announced my folding, Jerry Jones folded LDNS. A pity.

The postal Tournament will still be held. Announcements will be going out to GM’s shortly telling them to announce the signing up of players. We have decided to use a 4 week deadline, so I hope Canadian GM’s, yes you Randolph, will also participate. Right now we will have to limit the tournament to 56 players unless I get more GM’s.

That’s all til next time. The number after your name is the last issue you are entitled to, so you can keep track.

Deadline for all games 11-10-79

ALL PLAYERS SHOULD NOTE THAT THE BALANCE OF THEIR SUBS DOES COUNT TOWARDS THE 25¢ per turn fee. If it's easier, continue to think of it as a per issue sub. The number after your name indicates the last issue you are entitled to at present. You need not send more money until that number is reached.
